

Pancakes & Politics: Description of Event

"It is a conversation featuring community leaders in elected positions, serving in city and state administrations who are working to influence essential policy issues that impact Brazoria, Galveston and Harris Counties." It is a bipartisan event that provides the community various stakeholder perspectives.

Motion 1A: To host this event at WPC in Boutin Hall.

Motion 1B: WPC will waive the usage fees of $300.00 for the use of Boutin Hall on September 27, 2025, by Tau Zeta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority – a nonprofit organization.

Rationale: Above organization is a non-profit organization that has an annual event called Pancakes and Politics. They provide a non-partisan discussion on the upcoming changes and initiatives pertaining to local issues for the upcoming year. Invite all local candidates, school board members, and city leaders to participate in discussions. They charge a minimal fee of $10.00 which covers the cost of breakfast. The food is provided by local businesses and there will be no cooking in the kitchen. They provide set up and tear down assistance.

The event is from 9-12 with setup starting at 8 am and cleanup until 1 pm
